

Hello Dames:

Welcome to FALL, what a relief after the hot, wet summer we have had. Joe and I just recently returned home from our wonderful trip to Vancouver, Washington. We were gone 11 days, long enough to take in the beautiful sites in the Oregon and Washington. Rendezvous Nationale at the Hilton Hotel in Vancouver was well attended. Unfortunately Michigan came in second this year in the total number of votes; we have taken great pride in being number 1 for the past several years. We will make up for that next year, right Sharon? Sandy Wood from Virginia is our new La Presidente Nationale and our own Diane Carignan was elected La Garde de la Porte Nationale, congratulations Diane! More good news - Cabane Nationale finances are in GREAT shape thanks to the watchful eye of our new LaCorrespondante Nationale Terry Sampson and Commissaire Intendant Nationale Kathy Kaseman. All debts have been paid and we have money in our account. I'm sure we will get a rundown of other events when we get together at Fall Cheminot on October 8th. Until then stay safe, I look forward to seeing you soon.

Yours in service,

Cheryl Jamnick
